

July 10

At Waveland

Even though today (or is tomorrow, I'm always a bit vague about it) is officially the first day of summer, things in our area have been going at full-time vacation pace for several weeks. . . never have we seen so many people on the beach, so many out-of-state automobiles and so many children here, there and everywhere. . . used to think it was just a joke when someone mentioned population explosion, but seeing is believing. Year round residents have already reached the glazed eye stage which usually appears sometime between July 4 and August 15. . . Vacation home owners who are considered 'natives' by virtue of long time weekend occupancy, too gaze at the small group of 14-day wonders who sometimes succeed in making tourist almost a dirty word. . . there aren't many fortunately, but we refer to those with the 'I paid my rent and will try and abuse the property as much as is possible in only two weeks' attitude'—these invariably have 17 children in each family, at least two or three families share the same two bedroom cottage, which means grown-ups take turns sleeping, the children are free to roam the streets night and day—this crew spawns impressive amounts of garbage daily and play games with the city refuse truck. . . if they don't succeed in tossing their trash on neighboring lawns, they put bulging paper bags in front of the houses just after the trucks have passed, then neighborhood dogs spread the mess for them. Among their cuter tricks is the habit of fishing with enormous barbed plugs off the municipal pier seeing how many swimmers they can snare at a cast, tossing unpeeled crab nests in the midst of fishermen's lines or deciding to launch a boat off the seawall in such a way as to entirely block Beach Blvd. . . We really love visitors. . . ALMOST all of them but a few stinkers can smell ever-so-fun in no time flat.

Complaint of the Week

This brings up our COMPLAINT DEPARTMENT - Mr. and Mrs. Charles Costella own a lovely summer home on St. Joseph Street and most of their spare time is spent beautifying the house, patio and lawn. Last summer a rough and tumble crew all but wrecked the place slashing tires on a boat trailer, breaking lights, etc. Upon their arrival last Saturday they were horrified to discover that another bunch had come down near burning the house down. Cigarettes butts literally ruined slipcovers on patio furniture, paper cups littered the yard, the screen door had been taken down and flower baskets overturned. . . too a number of firecrackers, legal only on the 4th of July and other holidays, had been blasted all over the place. . . the small vandals disappeared when a neighbor investigated the smoke and noise. . . all of this took place in broad daylight just one block off of Coleman Avenue. We now have two local law officers, but they can hardly be expected to wet nurse undisciplined children night and day. . . this is up to the parents.

Births and Anniversaries

So much for unpleasant subjects—let's pass on to news of a more cheerful nature. Betty and Donald Dorn became parents once again last week—their newest daughter, to be christened Jenkins Lucille arrived at Hancock General on June 8; we were informed of this fact just a few minutes too late for last week's column. Congratulations are also due Mr. and Mrs. Walter Turcotte who will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary June 26. Marilyn and Kenny Fayard, too, have an anniversary coming up—their fourth is today. Marilyn also gets belated birthday greetings she cut her cake on the 17th. And a very happy birthday to Mrs. Addie Walker (she Mrs. Harold Hick's mamma) this lady was 84 years young on June 14. Mrs. Hicks, in addition to helping her mother observe the occasion, has also been entertaining her house-guest, Mrs. Thomas J. Sandridge of Monroe, La.

We must extend greetings to our faithful fishing reporter, Oswald Villere, who celebrated last Friday, June 15.

While we're on the subject of angling might as well mention that Ellis Cuevas and better (?) half picked up some beautiful flounders Friday night. . . 'Poor Ole' Herb Baron and Camille Fraerung did alright too—they caught two large redfish (and two more got away), several trout and flounders in Jordan River Saturday, and Kearny Robert sailed up the bayou with a boatload of speckles the same day.

Once again weekenders and summer residents arrived in large numbers—now that school is out in the Crescent City Josef Herbig and daughter Linda have settled down in their Clermont Harbor home—Clerence commutes on weekends but will be here for two weeks soon as his vacation begins July 4. Former Oak Blvd. resident, Mrs. Frances De Valin, was the weekend guest of Emmie and Eddie Montgomery, Richard (Cinderella) Tortiba, weekended in his Clermont Harbor home ad Mrs. Berry and Bob McMahon and four children, and Doris and Joe Lowman. Thelma Talley, the Bob Bells, Gestina and Armand Serpas and the 'Curley' Tocas, spent the weekend in Waveland. Mr. and Mrs. Chris Armos are also spending some time in their Tide Street home. Wonder where Julia and Clarence Du-something (can never remember to ask them how to spell their last name) are. . . it's been months since we've seen them.

Bay High Grads In Reunion

We had no idea how much fun could be had at a class reunion 'till last Saturday—Bay High's graduating class of '47 held its 15th reunion at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dupuis on Washington Road. Our function was ostensibly to photograph the group, but will have to confess we enjoyed the cutting as much as if not more than anyone present. Large tables (courtesy of James McDonald, a member of the class) groaned with delicacies. . . the chicken personally barbecued by Mr. Dupuis was absolutely out of this world—Shirley and Roland LaFond and Ruth Elton and Luder Moran masterminded the affair, making invitations, etc. One of the highlights was the dramatic arrival via plane of Peter Dupuis and Ronald Carver, both of Los Angeles, and Rene Cuervo of Las Vegas. Rene was equipped with color pictures of his lovely Swedish wife and two small daughters. He's a cruiser of the New Frontier by night and runs a tile business during daylight hours. Pete piloted his plane which landed in the local air field. Other class members included Mr. and Mrs. John Depue, Maryl and Rudy Jung of Mobile. . . Maryl, who still looks just about 18, is the former Meryl Radford, Bea Moore, Pasquale, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Carver, all of New Orleans, Betty and Our Brockman, Hattiesburg, Mrs. T. H. Brockman, Pass Christian, the James McDonalds, and offspring too numerous to mention were having a ball dangling from enormous, moss hung oak trees. Also present were teachers, Miss Julia Blaize and Mrs. George Currit and Mr. and Mrs. Sol Ingram. . . Mr. Ingram was superintendent of education for 32 years. Two honored guests were Susie Weston and C. C. McDonald and his lovely wife. Susie and Mr. C. C. are 30-year alumni of Bay High. Back to the children—then exhausted by tree climbing and romping over the spacious grounds the kids took turns holding Ronald LaFond's 28-inch green snake—a souvenir of the cutting. St. Patrick. . . the reptile was so named, made a hit with all of the children (parents weren't noticeably impressed) but tiny Mollie McDonald simply adored it. Her pretty mamma said that she realized she would enjoy a snake of her very own, but didn't think her daddy would be very enthusiastic. The high spot of the day took place about 4 p.m. when Joe Capdepon, who was there with bells on five years ago at the 10th reunion talked via long distance from his Houston, Tex., phone with everyone present on a novel hook-up with loudspeaker, microphone, etc. engineered by Our Brockman. Joe, one time state boxing champion is a victim of Hodgkin's disease—he was home on leave from the incurable ward of a Houston, Texas, hospital for Father's day. . . (he is the father of two small children) and his courage and gay spirits under the circumstances brought tears to the eyes of everyone present. The conversation lasted for well over an hour—He had planned to attend the celebration, but his condition is presently improved and medics feared the trip would be too exhausting. . . he was sadly missed by one and all as everyone remembered him as the friendliest boy in the class.

It's A Small World

The boss was returning from Philadelphia and an offset press convention via Delta airlines Friday last when he noticed two young men snazzy outfitted in Gulf Coast Military Academy uniforms, accompanied by their father, getting on the plane in Baltimore. . . conversation brought forth the fact that it was none other than long time summer homeowner, Dan Gilman and sons. . . the boys enjoyed every moment of the trip but were really impressed when the captain announced over the intercom the fact that the bridge of Bay St. Louis was immediately below just for their benefit.

A special get well wish to Roland Langley, who had his tonsils

He expressed his support of their undertakings and urged all to work together in unity and cooperation.

The monsignor also led the opening prayer after which each member introduced herself.

Mrs. V. J. Piazza, president of St. Margaret's Daughters, announced 11 dresses have been made by Mrs. R. V. Blenneman and distributed to children. She also reported on medicine and clothing for the needy and announced the group will give a Arriving to be sure that everything went well were his grandmother, Mrs. David Barnhill and uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. William Langley and children, Layton, Judy and Jerry, all of Jennings, La. They were guests of Roland's mother, Ann and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Jenkins. We're also sending hope you are feeling better wishes to Timmy Gianelloni who's feeling miserable with a strep throat. . . and anyone who has a sore throat has our sympathy.

Bay Side of the News

Triple greetings to C. F. (Mitch) Mitchell—he celebrated Father's Day, his birthday and Bunker Hill Day Sunday. One of the larger Father's Day gatherings was a barbecue at the J. N. Benvenuti's Dunbar Avenue home. Enjoying barbecued everything—chicken, ribs, goat, etc., potato salad, crab salad, cole slaw, home made lemon filled cake and a variety of beverages were son Joe and wife Mary Alice, son Raymond and wife, Audrey who lives in Plaquemines Parish, son-in-law and daughter, the Robert Goodells, Nican and Bobby Benvenuti, Mr. and Mrs. William Steele, Yvonne and Norman Benigno, Mary Alice's attractive parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Shourds and artist daughter, Dalton of Long Beach, Estelle and Bill Johnston—Bill reports his Southern Realty Ball club is going great guns—on a couple of occasions Bill helped the cause by entering the game himself.

Much activity coming up over the weekend—Our Lady of the Gulf's annual church fair takes place Saturday and Sunday—A second benefit will be a spaghetti dinner at Clermont-Lakeshore Youth Center Sunday from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. given for little Cynthia Klein, who still requires constant medical attention.

Chris Armos was honored at a pre-Father's Day party Saturday night by Mrs. Armos; guests were Mr. and Mrs. Chris Armos, Jr., and daughters Karen and Sandra, Mimes, Rose Graci and Joseph King and Mr. and Mrs. K. Smith, all of New Orleans. Mrs. C. J. Rhodes, Houma, La. Unfortunately their daughter, Mrs. Al Kermion and sons David and Brad were unable to attend as Mr. Kermion had a business engagement in the Crescent City.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lom visited friends in the Bay Saturday night driving a lovely brand new hyacinth-hued automobile. . . they cut their stay a little short as their toy dachshund appeared lonely when they drove away from home, so hurried back to dog-sit with him.

AIRMAN AND MRS. KENNETH RICHARD MILLER

Catherine Matherne Weds Airman from California

Arrangements of white gladioli and greenery backed the altar of Our Lady of the Gulf Church when Miss Catherine Ann Matherne and Airman Second Class Kenneth R. Miller exchanged marriage vows Saturday. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Matherne. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James P. Miller of Watsonville, Calif. Rev. Adrien G. Mercier performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a regal gown of white silk passe de soie appliqued with Chantilly lace and embroidered with seed pearls and iridescent. Apron-like panels formed a chapel length train and her fingertip veil was held by a lace tiara embellished with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of English ivy and lily of the valley centered with a white orchid enwined with her rosary. Mrs. Helen Trudell, matron of honor, for her sister, bridegroom, Miss Miriam Matherne, were short frocks of crystalline passe de soie in a shocking pink shade. They wore pill boxes of the same fabric on their heads and carried bouquets of pink gladiolas and English ivy.

Donald R. McDowell of Little Rock, Ark., was best man and Gilbert Sander, Jr., of Lompoc, Calif., was groomsman. Usher was Charles Carter, Jr.

Following the ceremony was a reception at the home of Mrs. Charles Carter on Union Street.

Arrangements of white gladioli and greenery decorated the reception hall and the bride's table.

The couple was assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Matherne, and the bride's parent grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gilbrook of New Orleans.

For a short wedding trip to the Gulf Coast, Mrs. Matherne, a beige suit ensemble with green accessories. The couple left Wednesday for Lompoc, Calif., where they will live at 1515 Lom-

Miss Heitzmann Becomes Bride of Air Force Man

Our Lady of the Gulf Church was the scene last Thursday for the wedding of Miss Marilyn Margaret Heitzmann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Heitzmann to Lt. Thomas Earl Ruckman, USAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Ruckman of St. Louis, Mo.

Tall altar vases of white gladioli and greenery and standing baskets of the same blossoms adorned the altar and sanctuary for the double ring ceremony and nuptial mass performed by Rev. Gerard Cleary.

Altar boys for the service were Michael Heitzmann, brother of the bride, and Joseph Monti, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Monti.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a traditional gown of white silk peau de soie and lace. The full skirt featured deep inverted pleats in back forming a chapel length train; the fitted bodice was of re-embroidered lace. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held by a handmade petalized headpiece of silk organza embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white feathered carnations centered with two pale cymbidium orchids.

Maid of honor was Miss Judy Heitzmann, a cousin of the bride. Miss Sue Ruckman of St. Louis, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. They wore identical short frocks of pastel blue silk organza, fashioned with low rounded necklines, tiny sleeves and full skirts tied at the waists with back bows. The bow streamers were caught at the hem by fabric roses. Both wore matching organza petalized headpieces similar to the bride's and carried crescent shaped bouquets of chrysanthemums.

Bruce Favre served as best man and groomsman was Anthony Lolicano. Robert Heitzmann, brother of the bride, was usher.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Heitzmann entertained at a small reception at their home.

The bride's mother wore a short summer frock of caramel chiffon, matching accessories and a small hat fashioned of brown and beige flowers and veiling. Mrs. Ruckman's summer frock was of coco and white printed jersey, complimented by white accessories and a small white hat. Both wore corsages of white feathered carnations.

Potted palms and tall arrangements of white gladioli and greenery stood in the reception room, while the bride's table was decorated with crystal candleabra flanking a multi-tiered wedding cake topped by spun-sugar wedding bells and surrounded by an arrangement of white mums and fern.

For their Gulf Coast wedding trip, the bride chose a two piece heavy faille ensemble in off-white with bone colored accessories, and a small hat of green flowers. Her corsage was cymbidium orchids from her bouquet.

The couple will make their home in Dayton, Ohio, at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base where Lt. Ruckman will be stationed.

Parents' Problem

The current move to set up an effective organization to provide a top-flight climate for our teen-agers is something that all of us, particularly parents of the group involved, should support. They have made their aim high, perhaps too high, and to some it might sound like a "I'm for motherhood and against sin" program.

For our own part we wish the initial goal had been more specific and limited to the concept that started the movement: concern over juvenile consumption of alcoholic beverages and, even more, criticism of the outlets, bar and grocery store, where these youngsters obtained the intoxicants.

We don't know whether the young in our area consume more alcoholic intoxicants than those in other areas. We suspect that the Bay-Waveland area is about average. So what! The 15 and 16 year old kids, girl and boy, are not mature enough to handle alcohol. Their parents and their source of supply, whether bar or bootlegger, do the community harm.

Two problems of the multitude involved in the juvenile question are pointed up by the present effort: (1) parental-child relationship and (2) Mississippi's near prohibition law. This week we would like to comment on the parental-child relationship, since that seems to be the keystone to many other problems.

As the father of three teen-agers we're in an awkward position to comment on other parents, but we're going to notwithstanding our daughters' complaint that we're a "fuddy-duddy", old fashioned and "times have changed". Much of their argument may be true in that automobiles are more available now than they were 30 years ago. In fact, many more high school students - teen-agers - now operate cars than students at relatively wealthy (?) colleges did 25 years ago. On the other hand all studies indicate that the high school student without use of an automobile does better than the one who has that luxury. Perhaps the current generation of students is spoiled physically, a weakness that this country for six years has been trying to correct on a national level.

Nevertheless, the major omission of parents that we see is their failure to supervise their children. Admittedly it is hard to say "no" to Mary when Jean and Polly can, or to John when Henry and Frederick's parents have said they could go. In essence the children have a union, their parents don't and don't have the guts to say no without union O.K.

Fee System Again

Elsewhere on this page we have printed a letter from Mr. W. J. McCawley. Not having been present we are in no position to substantiate his statement.

We do know that earlier this year Bay St. Louis was listed by the AAA as a "speed trap" in February after Mayor John Scalfide and Sheriff Gerald Price talked to the head of the Mississippi branch of the association, this community's listing was changed to "laws strictly enforced".

With laws being strictly enforced we can have no complaints, nor can you. On the other hand, if Mr. McCawley is correct it is not just a question of laws being strictly enforced.

There have been too many occasions when this editor has had people, apparently of the believeable type, question the traffic law enforcement in this county.

Now, all of us realize that the Gulf Coast counties, in particular Harrison County, live economically on transient trade. If the three counties, Hancock, Harrison and Jackson, get a bad name from the standpoint of the transient it is going to hurt economically these counties, and we are one of them.

We don't know, and there's no way for us to know, whether our primary law enforcement officer, Sheriff Gerald Price, encourages his deputies to give this county a black eye to foreign motorists. We do know that Bay St. Louis (the listing should be Hancock County) has a black eye. On the other hand it's hard to argue with the sheriff's report of casualties on U. S. 90 since he took office.

We don't know the answer. We think that abolishing the fee system as authorized by the constitutional amendment passed a few weeks ago will, if implemented by the legislature, do much to correct the unfavorable impression our visitors too often receive.

Our neighboring county's sheriff, Mr. Dedenau, a few months ago insisted that there was no organized gambling in his, Harrison County. Now he complains of Gov. Ross Barnett's action in physically closing three gambling joints. Mr. Dedenau either lies the first time or he has no basis of complaint against Mr. Barnett.

The officials for the union representing our strip tease artists, when questioned by the United States Senate investigating committee, said that had they been notified there would have been quick action. They didn't say whether the action would have been against the girls.

Be Really Honest

The Mississippi Retail Merchants Assn. brings about the passage of two bills by the 1962 Legislature. Both bills were aimed at protecting the consumer. One of the bills is technical in providing that a merchandiser cannot use the word manufacturer or wholesaler in his ad if in fact he is selling at retail.

The other, a much broader bill, merely says that an advertiser cannot, in his ad, say something that is misleading.

Newspapers, for many years, have tried to act as a minor Retail Merchants Assn. and in that way keep the public from being misinformed.

Nevertheless, we have our limitations. When something is advertised as $11.95 - this week only, $7.50 - the newspaper doesn't have the facility, nor the responsibility, of ascertaining whether the article usually sold for $11.95.

Another group of misleading advertisements attends the wording of the ad. For instance, what does high-test mean? What does choice mean?

High-test could be set out mathematically as 98 octane or 96 or 100; choice can mean the butcher's choice, U. S. Choice (meaning the carcass has been graded by the U. S. Department of Agriculture), or it could just plain mean "this is my choice to sell to you".

We do not approve the Mississippi law. We think it infringes on its vagueness the prerogatives of most businesses. We also recognize that a big segment of the public is frequently misled by the use of words in advertisements.

U. S. Choice means something. Choice alone means nothing. We think it is better that we inform our readers of the distinction rather than have a police-state type of regulation.

Non-Objective Painting

Having generally neglected disciplines in education it was quite logical that we Americans should neglect disciplines in art. The great painters and sculptors of the past studied anatomy so diligently that many of them snatched bodies. And today, after many centuries, we stare at the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel or at the walls of the Reichsmuseum and marvel at their works.

But this self-discipline is of little concern to the modern non-objective painter. All he needs is pigment and press agent. He can stick bits of glass, old rags and quids of used chewing tobacco on a board and he is a social critic. He can drive a car back and forth in pools of paint and Life magazine will write him up.

Talent is for squares. What you need is vast effrontery. This is the kind of art that a painter with no ability can paint, and a teacher with no ability can teach. No wonder it's popular at the factory end. But the tiny minority of youngsters who might have the spark of a Titian or a Rembrandt within them stay unencouraged and unrecognized. And our museums are filled with splashes, cubes and blots being stared at by confused citizens who haven't the guts to admit they are confused.

Collage of Mortality

But fakery in art is a light cross we bear. Much more serious is our collapse of moral standards and the blunting of our capacity for righteous indignation.

Our Puritan ancestors were bod. You could and should be better. And if you wanted to escape the eternal fires, you'd damned well better be.

Sin Is Bemusing

In recent years all this has changed in America. We have decided that sin is largely imaginary. We are bemused with behaviorist psychology which holds that abstract things like insight, will and spirit are figments of the imagination. Man, says the behaviorist, is either a product of a happy combination of genes and chromosomes or an unhappy combination.

He moves in an environment that will tend to make him good or that will tend to make him evil. He is just a chip tossed helplessly by forces beyond his control, and therefore not responsible.

Well, the theory that misbehavior can be cured by pulling down tenements and erecting in their places elaborate public housing is not holding water. The crime rates continue to rise along with our outlays for social services.

We are far gone in fancy euphemism. There are no lazy burns any more - only "deprived persons." It is impolite to speak of thugs. They are "underprivileged." Yet the swaggering, duck-tailed young men who boldly flaunt their gang symbols on their motorcycle jackets are far more blessed in creature comforts, opportunities for advancement, and freedom from drudgery so that the rewards for responsible behavior so that it can remove the age-old penalties for irresponsible behavior is building on a foundation of jelly.

25 YEARS AGO

June 18, 1937 - Mrs. J. B. Goldman, captain of Girl Scout Troop 1, and Miss Regina Blaine, treasurer, were in charge of the Girl Scout camp last week at Clermont Harbor. News from Hollywood - Walt Disney is currently working on his first full-length animated picture, Snow White.

The state will give a mother a bonus for her illegitimate children, and if she neglects them sufficiently she can save enough out of her ADC payments to keep herself and her boyfriends in wine and gin. Nothing is your fault. And when the city fathers of Newburgh suggested that able-bodied welfare clients might sweep the streets the "liberal" editorialists arise as one man and denounce them for their medieval cruelty.

We can stand this erosion of principle. But if we wish to survive maybe we had better do something about the elaborate pretense that there is no difference between the genuinely-unfortunate and the mobs of reliefers who gather to throw bottles every time the cops try to make a legitimate arrest. The welfare state that takes away the rewards for responsible behavior so that it can remove the age-old penalties for irresponsible behavior is building on a foundation of jelly.

Miss Fontana Is Wed to Mr. Bourgeois

Tall baskets and vases of white summer blossoms flanked the altar of Our Lady Star of the Sea Catholic Church, New Orleans, Saturday for the 11 a.m. marriage of Miss Barbara Marie Fontana to Tommy Ray Bourgeois, son of Mrs. Arthur Bourgeois and the late Mr. Bourgeois of Waveland. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sebastian Fontana, of New Orleans. The single ring ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Richard.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a long white gown of silk organza featuring a lace bodice and a cathedral train scalloped and edged with lace. Her short veil was held by a pearl and lace tiara and she carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley centered with one white and two purple orchids.

Maid of honor, Miss Carol Bourgeois, cousin of the groom, and bridesmaids Misses Claudette Guldig, Diana Pahette, cousins of the bride, Linda Sanders and Cathy Hauck, all of New Orleans, wore identical frocks of blue silk organza. Fashioned along simple lines, the short dresses featured large back bows. All wore matching headpieces of fabric flowers embroidered with seed pearls and carried bouquets of yellow carnations.

Miss Kim Lapara, cousin of the bride of New Orleans, was flower girl.

Gerald LaFontaine of Waveland was best man. Groomsmen were Bobby Carver, Louis Bourgeois, both of Waveland, Daryl Fontana, brother of the bride of New Orleans, and Louis (Brother) Bourgeois also of Waveland. Ory Bourgeois, uncle of the groom, and Joe Grisafili, cousin of the bride ushered. Robert Ramsey was ring-bearer.

A reception followed at the Woodmen of the World Hall. The bride's mother wore a beige summer dress with matching accessories and a navy blue hat. Mother of the groom was in a blue flowered frock complimented with white accessories. Both wore orchid corsages.

Floral arrangements adorned the receiving hall and the bride's table which was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake.

For a wedding trip to the Gulf Coast, the bride chose a traveling ensemble of beige and black, beige accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The couple are now living in Bay St. Louis and hope to move into a permanent residence soon.

THE DAY - Huge oak trees on Canal Avenue forming a canopy, relieve the heat of the sun mid-day sun, fresh green grass given new life by daily showers and sounds of the season - birds awakening and singing, clanking of horseshoes, dinner bells clanging and sound of an interminable procession of bicycles going to and from the beach.

Osborne Rescues Reinike

Relief pitcher Billy Osborne put down an Industrial Electric rally in the final inning to give Reinike's Dirs. Dirs. a 7-6 victory in the second game of a Bay Softball League doubleheader Monday night.

Reinike went into the seventh inning with a good lead over Industrial Electric behind good pitching by Charlie Carter. Carter, however, hit a wild streak in the seventh, walking home two runs before Osborne was called in. He retired two straight tough batters to preserve the triumph.

In the opener, Trapaud used excellent pitching by Claude Varborough to defeat Kite Youth Center. Varborough didn't allow a hit until the fifth inning and Kite scored their only run in the seventh.

Friday night league leading Southern Realty scored an exciting 3-2 victory over Krankey's, although the losers outplayed undefeated Southern Realty most of the game. Southern scored all three runs in one inning with the help of Krankey errors. Dan Caldwell was the winning pitcher.

In the second game the Knights of Columbus defeated Roland Signs to stay tied with Reinike for second place in the league. The two teams were to meet last night in the first of two games and the winner took over second.

Tomorrow night will feature Trapaud vs. Krankey and Kite Youth Center vs. Industrial Electric; Monday it's Industrial Electric vs. Bay KC's and Trapaud vs. Southern Realty, Wednesday night will complete the first half.

He Hears... Dietzel Makes Headlines

He, the highly-successful football coach now at the U. S. Naval Academy, is making headlines again, and the headlines are not being advantageous to him, his coaching, or the service.

The man who vowed he'd never leave Louisiana State now knows, the falls who's now coaching at Army. Two other collegiate coaches complained loudly that Dietzel was "ruining" their players.

Louisiana's Senator Russell B. Long suggested a investigation of Dietzel's recruiting methods.

Two weeks ago we thought Dietzel would have harder times at Army than at LSU because he would not be able to recruit just the best men to take those young men who were high in mental as well as in physical ability. It's sad but true that some of Army's best athletes aren't up to par in gray matter.

The complaint seems to be that Dietzel is recruiting players to, handing out alternate academy appointments and others believe are designed to build a team capable of winning.

Accusation that Dietzel is molding a team out of men below standards is silly. Any person incapable of attending West Point is not going to last long enough to do Dietzel any good. Life at the rugged, especially the freshman year. Another beef is players are going to West Point just to play football. When a man enters West Point he agrees to give the Army ten (10) years of his life. Each graduating cadet serves six years as an officer. A boy isn't getting into that unless he is interested in attending West Point.

The personable Paul was at LSU he grabbed 90 per cent of the leading area grid talent. Long didn't want an investigation then Dietzel was on his side -- he was putting Louisiana's name in every paper in the country. Now that Dietzel has left good LSU, Long is afraid he'll use his influence somewhere else.

Strength of the Indians

We finally realized last weekend why the Cleveland Indians are in the American Baseball League. The Tribe swept a four-game series with the New York Yankees and opened a three-game series with the third-place Bombers.

Cleveland has no Roger Maris or Mickey Mantle. If you stop and compare the Indians and Yankees man-for-man, the Yanks win it down. High spirit and pitching brought Cleveland their last win in 1954—if the Indians win this year those two items will be a large part.

Rich Donavan developed last year into one of baseball's best pitchers. His record didn't show it because he was pitching for the Washington Senators and when your team doesn't score any runs it's hard to win. Traded to Cleveland he won his first eight starts and now has a 10-2 mark, best in the league. Jim Perry, Jim Mudcat, Pedro Ramos, Barry Latman and Gary Bell all are good pitchers, the latter two also valuable as relievers. However, all the pitchers are righthanded and a pennant contender needs a lefty.

The Tribe doesn't have a real power hitter, but they have good hitting power. Willie Kirkland and John Romano provide the long ball.

We think Cleveland will win the pennant. We still like Detroit—it's about time the Tigers made their move. The absence of older Al Kaline might have nullified the Tigers' chances.

Williams Wins

Williams won the 1962 U. S. Open in tremendous fashion. In only a pro five months, he played like a veteran of 10 years. Williams showed fine judgment on the 18th hole of Sunday's final round against Arnold Palmer when, after watching Palmer hit short of the green in two shots, he played safely out of a bad lie and settled for a birdie. Holding a two-stroke lead before teeing off on the hole, Palmer would have to sink a long chip shot (which he almost did).

Williams missed birdie puts on the 18th green Saturday during the final round, if either had dropped, he would have been the champion. Palmer complained about his "terrible" putting, but had putted that badly, he would not have tied the course record for 72 holes.

Palmer called the loss his biggest golfing disappointment. He is stamping to become the first man to win pro golf's grand slam—Masters, U. S. Open, British Open, and the PGA. We can't ever feel sorry for a man who in six months has won about $100,000.

Gulfport Halts Jr. Region 9 in Opener

Gulfport's American Legion baseball team scored two runs in the third inning and defeated St. Louis 11-4 in the District 9 regular season opener at St. Louis Stadium.

Gulfport took a 7-0 lead in the first, and after St. Louis had the gap to 7-4 with a run in the last of the third and three runs in the fourth, visitors pulled away with two runs in the fifth and two more in the seventh and final inning.

Richard Schaefer, Dick Wersch and Dick Rhodes collected the only hits for the local nine, and in the fourth when three runs came in to score, Coach Harriet's Bay squad scored a third inning run without the benefit of a hit.

Jimmy Morel went the distance in the mound for the locals, and St. Louis entertained Biloxi Saturday and goes to Picayune Sunday.

The District schedule calls for the five teams, Gulfport, Picayune, Pascagoula and Bay St. Louis, to play each other three times, and a full-game schedule. The locals will play six games and six away.

The remainder of the local team schedule is as follows: July 25 at Pascagoula; June 27, 29, 30, July 1, 2 at Biloxi; July 2 at Picayune, Lure, July 6, Pascagoula, here; July 11, Gulfport, here; July 13, Biloxi, here; July 16 at Picayune, there; July 18, Pascagoula, there.
